Successful Entertainment.

The entertainment last night at the Presbyterian church was largely attended. The ladies who conducted the getting up of the affair, should feel flattered at the success of the enterprise.

The exercises were opened by music by the Las Vegas Orchestra. The first on the programme was a select reading by Prof. J. S. Fleming; subject, "Matrimony." It was well rendered and he showed himself master of the subject in hand. His excellent delivery was well appreciated by the audience, who greeted him with a round of applause.

A vocal solo, entitled "Five o'clock in the Evening," was excellent and was rendered to perfection. In this piece Miss Hattie Hixon showed herself a master of music.

The third exercise on the programme was a select reading by Mrs. W. F. Smith. Mrs. Smith is an excellent reader and claimed the undivided attention of the audience.

The instrumental solo by Mrs. C. Heap was excellent. She touches the keys lightly and happily.

"Wounded," select reading by Prof. J. S. Fleming, in full soldier's uniform, was rendered in a very impressive manner.

A vocal solo, Mrs. H. B. Warner, was the gem of the evening. Hours of such singing would not tire an audience. Repeated applause brought Mrs. Warner to the stand a second time.

"The Death Bed" by Prof. Fleming, was listened to with deep interest by those in attendance.

Music by the orchestra closed the first part of the entertainment.

THE PEAKED SISTERS
created considerable merriment. There were seven of them, dressed in mourning with peaked caps upon their heads. After being severally introduced to the audience by one of the sisters they sang the greeting song.

A vocal solo by Melbaite one of the sisters was well appreciated.

Recitation, by Esther, another of the sisterhood, was very good. This recitation commanded universal attention.

Worship Song, by the sisters together, was well rendered and created more fun than any other performance.

The instrumental solo, Shells of the Ocean, by Jerusha, was entertaining. Classic Song, solo by Esther, chorus by sisters was, excellent.

Vocal duet, "What do the Wild Waves Say," by Huldah and Dorcas, two sisters, was very beautiful and sentimental.

The entertainment was a decided success throughout, and a credit to all who participated therein. The receipts of the evening could not be arrived at definitely, but amounted to fifty-sixty-five dollars.

Pistol Plays

A WOMAN THE CAUSE.

Frank Walters and Scott Fish had some trouble over a woman, night before last, on the West Side. A desperate quarrel ensued, during which Fish got behind a door, when Walters shot through the door at him, the ball entering the left breast and lodging in the left shoulder. Walters was arrested yesterday morning by Nicolas Delgado and placed in jail. About noon he was brought before Jose Montoya, Justice of the Peace for the precinct, and released, as it was decided that he acted in self-defense. Dr. Severson is attending Scott Fish, who is resting easy, and although the wound is a serious one, he will undoubtedly recover.

JACK MCMAUS.

who shot Clancy at Wallace a short time ago, while in the Valley Saloon on Railroad avenue yesterday morning, started an argument with a brackman named Frank Burke. McManus seemed anxious to provoke a quarrel, and, as words grew hotter, suddenly asked Burke if he had a gun. Burke said no. McManus then jerked out his gun and, in endeavoring to knock Burke over the head with it, the gun went off and the ball lodged in the wall near the ceiling, hurting no one.

McManus was carried to jail by officer Franklin. He had just received a commission as Deputy U. S. Marshal, and intended to have gone down to Wallace yesterday.

Vote of Thanks.

The ladies of the Presbyterian Church, appreciating the kindness of the citizens in attending the entertainment in such overflowing numbers, wish to express their gratitude for their attention and patronage. They have also passed a hearty vote of thanks to the ladies and gentlemen who took part and also to the orchestra.

Mrs. S. L. Sloan,

President of Ladies Society.

Thanksgiving Topics.

To-morrow is the day.

Thursday, November 24th.

Render thanks but don't forget the poor.

Many private Thanksgiving dinners will be given to-morrow.

The St. Nicholas Hotel will give an immense Thanksgiving dinner. Invitations are out.

What will the turkeys think? We pity them, but all things have their day and Thanksgiving day is the turkey's.

The charity wagon, which starts out this morning to solicit money, clothing, and provisions for the needy poor of Las Vegas represents a worthy enterprise, and all who are able should contribute.

The National Hotel manager, J. W. Zellars, is making arrangements for a first class hop to be given there Thanksgiving evening. A general good time may be expected by every one. He has placed the price of ticket at $2.00 just enough to cover expenses.

GAZETTE CLEANINGS.

Thanksgiving to-morrow.

All our merchants are over-run with business.

Trains on time right up to the minute yesterday.

Hunting in the vicinity of Mineral Hill is unusually good.

The street cars start out at 6 o'clock a. m. and run till 11 p. m.

J. P. Ryan is erecting a new residence for George McKay on Zion Hill.

The work of remodeling the Exchange Hotel has already been commenced.

Two Pullman sleepers attached to each train yesterday, and both filled with passengers.

The remains of Johnnie Hubbell were buried in Bernadillo, and his mother has not yet returned to Las Vegas.

Our advertising patronage is still on the increase, and another enlargement will be in order to make room for them all.

Five departures for Mineral City yesterday, representing the States of Ohio, Pennsylvania, Michigan, Kansas and Colorado.

A Mexican named Jesus Morales was brought before Judge Steele yesterday for assault and battery and fined $25 and costs.

J. W. Zellars has made another addition to the National Hotel in the way of fine cigar show-case filled with the best brands of cigars.

A reward is offered for the capture of J. W. Stokes, the telegraph operator who got out of jail on a writ of habeas corpus, and then skipped the city.

Beil & Co., the plaza grocers and bakers, report trade booming in the grocery and bakery line. They are always adding improvements.

Fred Eppstein, formerly manager of the Pinafore Company at Albuquerque, has gone to Trinidad and started a dancing school with a Mr. Cornell.

All the church choirs are requested to meet to-night at 7:30 o'clock, local time, at the Presbyterian church, to practice for the Thanksgiving services.

The meeting of the Knights of Honor which was set for Thursday evening has been postponed until Thursday evening a week on account of Thanksgiving.

Colonel Lockhart informs us that he never knew a time in Las Vegas when trade was better than at present. There seems to be a veritable boom in business.

George D. Trout, of St. Louis, has been appointed manager of the Western Union office in this city. A notice for a messenger boy will be found in another column.

A landscape gardener, with forty men, arrived from Topeka yesterday. They will immediately commence work at the Hot Springs and fix up things in first-class style.

The Adams Express company have opened an office at Nutt station to accommodate the increasing express business at that point. James Bennett has been appointed agent at that place.

Sam. Wells, the manager of the Park Grocery, with his able assistant, R. G. McDonald, are working up a fine trade. They keep a choice and select stock of goods and sell at most reasonable figures.

Two innocent Pueblo Indians, who came up to the city on "fruit business," tried to head their way out on the passenger train yesterday, but a brakeman's boot quickly changed their intentions.

One of our citizens had a close tussle with three unknown men in the dark, night before last, near the depot. He got away with all three, however, and came out with a large forty-five revolver to boot.

The police force of the West Side have established police headquarters in the rear of the building just across the alley from the First National Bank. One of the force will remain in the office at all hours.

Calvin Fisk will issue a supplement of large size to the December number of the Great Southwestern. It will be a booming paper replete with valuable information relating to New Mexico and Las Vegas.

Messrs. Shupp, Reynolds, Whitmore and Booth, members of the new coal company, yesterday morning went out about one and a half miles and located ground upon which they will immediately sink a shaft for coal.

Judge L. Bradford Prince was married to Miss Mary C. Beardsley, of New York City, at Trinity church, on Thursday, November 17, by Right Rev. A. N. Littlejohn, bishop of Long Island. —New Mexican.

The ferry boat running across the Rio Grande at Socorro is too small and weak for the travel across the river. The boat is towed across by one Mexican, with simply a pole, and there is no cable to guide the boat. It is to be hoped that the bridge which is talked of there will be built as soon as possible.

Through lack of space we have been tardy in congratulating the Las Vegas Gazette, and our old friend Mr. W. G. Koogler, the assistant editor of that journal. Mr. Koogler was married a few weeks since to an accomplished young lady of Richmond, Va., and has returned to Las Vegas with his bride. The GAZETTE has been enlarged to a seven column daily to meet the requirements of that bustling city, and is the handsomest and best printed paper in the Territory, and an excellent newspaper. Taking all into consideration, the GAZETTE must certainly be a paying institution, as it deserves to be for it has done excellent work in building up Las Vegas and New Mexico. —News & Press.

PERSONAL.

John Wurtzelbach, Los Cerrillos, is stopping at the Sumner.

James Connors and Ed. Hauch, U. S. Army, are at the National.

Matt M. Washer, St. Louis, registered at the St. Nicholas yesterday.

Thompson Lindsley and A. G. Meyer, Saint Louis, are at the St. Nicholas.

Father Persons, of the Las Vegas college, returned from Santa Fe yesterday.

Mr. Schmidt, of the east side wagon factory, went east yesterday to buy a new stock.

Dr. H. W. Ozias and wife, of Philadelphia, who have been visiting Las Vegas for over a month, left yesterday for Colton, California.

N. Segura, deputy sheriff of San Miguel county, who has been sick for over a month, made his appearance on the streets again yesterday.

B. Higginbotham, Kingman; T. J. Colpas, Ogdenburg, N. Y.; William Cooney, Rodgers' Bend; and Frank Lawrence, Santa Fe, are at the Exchange Hotel.

Mrs. Kemman, daughter and son, left yesterday for their home in La Grange, a Chicago suburb. Miss Kemman is very low with consumption, and not expected to live.

The following persons came down from Fort Union yesterday and are at the Sumner: W. F. Rice and wife, Mrs. P. J. Brodwick, Lea Leijer, Horace Randall and A. E. Browne.

T. F. Chapman, of the St. Nicholas, left yesterday for California, where he goes in hope of benefiting his health. He has the GAZETTE'S best wishes for his ultimate recovery.

A. L. Cutting, formerly one of the owners of the Trinidad Times, made the GAZETTE a pleasant call yesterday evening. He intends locating here if suitable business can be found.

J. S. Duncan is again out, after a week's sickness, and went to Rogers' Bend yesterday. He was wearing an elegant golf watch, the present of his former partner, Mr. Chaffin.

Louis Strauss, the affable member of Jaffa Brothers' Las Vegas establishment, is in town to-day on a business trip and visit to friends. —Trinidad News. He returned to Vegas yesterday.

Calvin Sampson and D. H. Powell came down from Rincón del Teocote and were taking in the city yesterday. These old timers had apparently lost old Las Vegas and were hunting around to find it in this large city.

Mrs. Frank Yaeger and Mrs. Travis, of Fort Union, honored the GAZETTE office with a call. They desired to learn the way in which a daily paper is printed. They took the train south yesterday to visit friends in Santa Fe.

Quarterly Meeting.

The attendance at the quarterly meeting at the M. E. Church last Sunday, was quite large. Rev. Thomas Harwood, of Santa Fe, preached in the morning, and Rev. Brown, of this place, preached at night. Seven new members were added to the church. Five by letter and two on probation.

The notices in the street cars relating to fares sometimes misled people who do not know that a single fare is five cents, instead of ten cents, as was the case when tickets were sold. A gentleman was in yesterday complaining that he had paid about $2 extra for rides, by going by the notices instead of inquiring as to the regular fare.

Frank Maier has just brought in a fine herd of beef cattle to be slaughtered for his butcher shop. He keeps all kinds of meat of the freshest, and best quality and also all kinds of sausage. Go to his shop for your meat. 11-23-91.

Tin Shop.

O. L. Houghton has opened a new tin shop complete in all particulars in his old stand on the plaza where all classes of tinware and sheetironware will be manufactured promptly to order. The best of workmen are employed and they have everything at hand with which to work. 11-23-91.

A Dialogue.

"Charley, where did you get those fine oysters?"

"At the Park Grocery."

"Where are they?"

"They are the finest I ever saw. Who are they?"

"They are Booth's Horse Saddle Rock. You will find friend Mack there who will be glad to meet all of his old friends, and he will wait on you in first-class style. They keep everything there, Turkeys, Chickens, Geese, Apples, Potatoes, Turnips, Cabbage, Mince Meat, and if you call for anything they have not got you let me know and I will blow up both Sam and Mack the next time I see them. Tell all the boys to go and see them and take the girls with them that they may learn the way, and they will always go there. A pound is sixteen ounces at that place." 11-23-91.

Notice to Delinquents.

Those parties who have failed to pay their taxes are hereby warned that, unless the same are paid by the first day of January, 1892 their names as delinquents will be handed to the attorney general of the Territory, who will then at once proceed according to law. This is the last notice that will be given from this office, and should be heeded. HILARIO ROMERO, Sheriff San Miguel County, N. M. Las Vegas, Nov. 15th. 11-20-91.

Budweiser beer at Billy's.

A. O. Robbins, the furniture dealer, has now the largest and most complete stock ever brought to New Mexico. It would do credit to any city. He buys at the lowest prices and can consequently sell at reasonable figures. He has everything in the furniture line and it will pay anyone to examine his stock before purchasing. 5-6-91.

Telephones for Residences
Telephone will be placed in private houses at the rate of $20 per annum. Application can be made at the San Miguel National Bank. 10-27-91. A. G. HOOD, Manager.
